Note: All entering students from all modalities are included (both Transfer and FTIC students). Data are presented for fall-to-fall retention (that is, students are counted as retained if they re-enroll for the first fall of their second year at Saint Leo.)
Note: All entering students from all modalities are included (both Transfer and FTIC students). 100% time to completion is four years, 150% time to completion is five year, and 200% time to completion is six years. The counts of degrees conferred are cumulative (that is, 150% includes all degrees that were conferred at 100% time to completion.)
Note: All entering students from all modalities are included (both Transfer and FTIC students). 100% time to completion is four years, 150% time to completion is five year, and 200% time to completion is six years. The completion rates are cumulative (that is, 150% includes all degrees that were conferred at 100% time to completion.)
Note: All entering students from all modalities are included (both Transfer and FTIC students). Data are presented for fall-to-fall retention (that is, students are counted as retained if they re-enroll for the first fall of their second year at Saint Leo.)
Note: All entering students from all modalities are included (both Transfer and FTIC students). 100% time to completion is four years, 150% time to completion is five year, and 200% time to completion is six years. The counts of degrees conferred are cumulative (that is, 150% includes all degrees that were conferred at 100% time to completion.)
Note: All entering students from all modalities are included (both Transfer and FTIC students). 100% time to completion is four years, 150% time to completion is five years, and 200% time to completion is six years. The completion rates are cumulative (that is, 150% includes all degrees that were conferred at 100% time to completion.)
Note: All entering students from all modalities are included (both Transfer and FTIC students). Data are presented for fall-to-fall retention (that is, students are counted as retained if they re-enroll for the first fall of their second year at Saint Leo.)
Note: All entering students from all modalities are included (both Transfer and FTIC students). 100% time to completion is four years, 150% time to completion is five year, and 200% time to completion is six years. The counts of degrees conferred are cumulative (that is, 150% includes all degrees that were conferred at 100% time to completion.)
BA: Business Administration Graduation Rates for 100%, 150% and 200% Time to Completion

Note: All entering students from all modalities are included (both Transfer and FTIC students). 100% time to completion is four years, 150% time to completion is five year, and 200% time to completion is six years. The completion rates are cumulative (that is, 150% includes all degrees that were conferred at 100% time to completion.)
Note: All entering students from all modalities are included (both Transfer and FTIC students). Data are presented for fall-to-fall retention (that is, students are counted as retained if they re-enroll for the first fall of their second year at Saint Leo.
The first cohort of the BA: Economics cohort enrolled in 2013 fall-1. We will have graduation data for the BA: Economics program starting in our next annual report.

Note: All entering students from all modalities are included (both Transfer and FTIC students). 100% time to completion is four years, 150% time to completion is five year, and 200% time to completion is six years. The counts of degrees conferred are cumulative (that is, 150% includes all degrees that were conferred at 100% time to completion.)
The first cohort of the BA: Economics cohort enrolled in 2013 fall. We will have graduation data for the BA: Economics program starting in our next annual report.

Note: All entering students from all modalities are included (both Transfer and FTIC students). 100% time to completion is four years, 150% time to completion is five year, and 200% time to completion is six years. The completion rates are cumulative (that is, 150% includes all degrees that were conferred at 100% time to completion.)
Note: All entering students from all modalities are included (both Transfer and FTIC students). Data are presented for fall-to-fall retention (that is, students are counted as retained if they re-enroll for the first fall of their second year at Saint Leo.)
Note: All entering students from all modalities are included (both Transfer and FTIC students). 100% time to completion is four years, 150% time to completion is five years, and 200% time to completion is six years. The counts of degrees conferred are cumulative (that is, 150% includes all degrees that were conferred at 100% time to completion.)
Note: All entering students from all modalities are included (both Transfer and FTIC students). 100% time to completion is four years, 150% time to completion is five year, and 200% time to completion is six years. The completion rates are cumulative (that is, 150% includes all degrees that were conferred at 100% time to completion.)
Note: All entering students from all modalities are included (both Transfer and FTIC students). Data are presented for fall-to-fall retention (that is, students are counted as retained if they re-enroll for the first fall of their second year at Saint Leo.)
Note: All entering students from all modalities are included (both Transfer and FTIC students). 100% time to completion is four years, 150% time to completion is five years, and 200% time to completion is six years. The counts of degrees conferred are cumulative (that is, 150% includes all degrees that were conferred at 100% time to completion.)
Note: All entering students from all modalities are included (both Transfer and FTIC students). 100% time to completion is four years, 150% time to completion is five year, and 200% time to completion is six years. The completion rates are cumulative (that is, 150% includes all degrees that were conferred at 100% time to completion.)
All entering students from all modalities are included (both Transfer and FTIC students). Data are presented for fall-to-fall retention (that is, students are counted as retained if they re-enroll for the first fall of their second year at Saint Leo.)
Note: All entering students from all modalities are included (both Transfer and FTIC students). 100% time to completion is four years, 150% time to completion is five years, and 200% time to completion is six years. The counts of degrees conferred are cumulative (that is, 150% includes all degrees that were conferred at 100% time to completion.)
Note: All entering students from all modalities are included (both Transfer and FTIC students). 100% time to completion is four years, 150% time to completion is five year, and 200% time to completion is six years. The completion rates are cumulative (that is, 150% includes all degrees that were conferred at 100% time to completion.)
Note: All entering students from all modalities are included (both Transfer and FTIC students). Data are presented for fall-to-fall retention (that is, students are counted as retained if they re-enroll for the first fall of their second year at Saint Leo.)
Note: All entering students from all modalities are included (both Transfer and FTIC students). 100% time to completion is four years, 150% time to completion is five years, and 200% time to completion is six years. The counts of degrees conferred are cumulative (that is, 150% includes all degrees that were conferred at 100% time to completion.)
Note: All entering students from all modalities are included (both Transfer and FTIC students). 100% time to completion is four years, 150% time to completion is five years, and 200% time to completion is six years. The completion rates are cumulative (that is, 150% includes all degrees that were conferred at 100% time to completion.)
Note: All entering students from all modalities are included (both Transfer and FTIC students). Data are presented for fall-to-fall retention (that is, students are counted as retained if they re-enroll for the first fall of their second year at Saint Leo.
Note: All entering students from all modalities are included (both Transfer and FTIC students). 100% time to completion is four years, 150% time to completion is five years, and 200% time to completion is six years. The counts of degrees conferred are cumulative (that is, 150% includes all degrees that were conferred at 100% time to completion.)
Note: All entering students from all modalities are included (both Transfer and FTIC students). 100% time to completion is four years, 150% time to completion is five year, and 200% time to completion is six years. The completion rates are cumulative (that is, 150% includes all degrees that were conferred at 100% time to completion.)
Note: All entering students from all modalities are included (both Transfer and FTIC students). Data are presented for fall-to-fall retention (that is, students are counted as retained if they re-enroll for the first fall of their second year at Saint Leo.
Note: All entering students from all modalities are included (both Transfer and FTIC students). 100% time to completion is four years, 150% time to completion is five years, and 200% time to completion is six years. The counts of degrees conferred are cumulative (that is, 150% includes all degrees that were conferred at 100% time to completion.)
Note: All entering students from all modalities are included (both Transfer and FTIC students). 100% time to completion is four years, 150% time to completion is five year, and 200% time to completion is six years. The completion rates are cumulative (that is, 150% includes all degrees that were conferred at 100% time to completion.
Note: All entering students from all modalities are included (both Transfer and FTIC students). Data are presented for fall-to-fall retention (that is, students are counted as retained if they re-enroll for the first fall of their second year at Saint Leo.)
Note: All entering students from all modalities are included (both Transfer and FTIC students). 100% time to completion is four years, 150% time to completion is five years, and 200% time to completion is six years. The counts of degrees conferred are cumulative (that is, 150% includes all degrees that were conferred at 100% time to completion.)
Note: All entering students from all modalities are included (both Transfer and FTIC students). 100% time to completion is four years, 150% time to completion is five year, and 200% time to completion is six years. The completion rates are cumulative (that is, 150% includes all degrees that were conferred at 100% time to completion.)
Note: All entering students from all modalities are included (both Transfer and FTIC students). Data are presented for fall-to-fall retention (that is, students are counted as retained if they re-enroll for the first fall of their second year at Saint Leo.
Note: All entering students from all modalities are included (both Transfer and FTIC students). 100% time to completion is four years, 150% time to completion is five years, and 200% time to completion is six years. The counts of degrees conferred are cumulative (that is, 150% includes all degrees that were conferred at 100% time to completion.)
Note: All entering students from all modalities are included (both Transfer and FTIC students). 100% time to completion is four years, 150% time to completion is five years, and 200% time to completion is six years. The completion rates are cumulative (that is, 150% includes all degrees that were conferred at 100% time to completion.)