

Interreligious Dialogue Fellowship

Founded in 1998, the mission of the Center for Catholic-Jewish Studies is to build mutual respect, understanding, and appreciation among Jews, Catholics, and all people of good will by providing opportunities for interreligious education and dialogue.

Fellowship Opportunities

Fellowships which include a renewable tuition scholarship are available to students interested in the study of interreligious dialogue.

Application Requirements

- Applicant must be full-time undergraduate or graduate student
- A current, completed FAFSA must be on file with Financial Aid Office
- A cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher is required
- Applicant must submit a statement describing interest in interreligious dialogue

Apply Now

saintleo.academicworks.com

Deadlines to Apply

OCT

15

Fall Cycle

October 15

FEB

15

Winter Cycle

February 15

Funds will be applied to the student's 2024-2025 academic year financial aid package.